Dear Parents/ Guardians,

Every year I examine what we thought went well during the previous school year and what can continue to be improved. Last year, I noticed that our musical performances were standing room only! While this is a wonderful problem, I want to make sure every child can invite grandma, grandpa or any other important person in his/her life and have this person enjoy the performance.

After brainstorming and getting feedback from parents on the executive board of the PTA, I decided to hold grade level concerts. This year each grade level will have its own concert! Two concerts will be held in the evening and another two grade levels will have their concert first thing in the morning so parents and guests can head off to work singing a song in their heart.

The schedule would be rotated annually so that by the time a new student entering kindergarten leaves Lincoln, he/she would have performed two evening and two day concerts.

In order to help you plan accordingly, I am publishing the concert dates now. Please note:

Kindergarten Concert- June 4, 2012 at 9 a.m.
First Grade Concert- June 14, 2012 at 7 p.m.
Second Grade Concert- April 26, 2012 at 9 a.m.
Third Grade Concert- March 8, 2012 at 7 p.m.

Again, we are piloting this new format this year and I will monitor the situation and obtain teacher and parental feedback.

Thanks for supporting the children in their musical endeavors! You and your guests will be pleased with these shows!

Regards,
