

Please note: If you are enrolled in either Honors English 100 separately OR Honors World History separately, you will follow this exact same assignment.

Attention: Students Entering Honors English 100 and Honors World History
From: Mrs. Dougard and Ms. Yoda

Your summer reading assignment for Honors English 100 and Honors World History is to read and take notes on the following myths from the Edith Hamilton Mythology book you have received. Please read all directions that follow and complete this assignment to the best of your ability!

First, read and take notes on the intro. located on pp.13-23 (This information will be expanded on in your Honors World History class next year.) *****

1. Cupid and Psyche
2. How the World and Mankind Were Created
3. Perseus
4. Theseus
5. The Trojan War
6. The Fall of Troy
7. Hercules
8. Oedipus
9. Antigone
10. Underworld, Lesser Gods, Roman Gods

ÿ In your notes, you may include the following (as they apply to that particular myth)

- o Character descriptions
- o Thorough plot summary
- o Conflicts
- o Themes/Lessons/Morals
- o Imagery (and any other Literary Devices you may find) ÿ Your notes should be...

- o Organized by myth
- o In bullet form or paragraph form
- o Neat and thorough (hand-written or typed)
- o Original!

Don't forget to bring all of your notes (and your book!) when we start school; you will be working on several assignments pertaining to these readings in both your Honors English and Honors World History classes.

Good luck and have a great summer! We look forward to meeting you and working with you next year!
