

CLASSROOM AIDES

The board, within its financial means, may hire aides as recommended by the chief school administrator.

It is the responsibility of the classroom teacher to plan for any teacher aide's constructive involvement with the class. The primary benefit must be to the pupils.

Classroom aides shall be under the supervision of the classroom teacher.

All aide job descriptions must be approved by the executive county superintendent. All aides shall be required to comply with the provisions of the law regarding health examinations and criminal history checks.

In accordance with federal law, the chief school administrator shall establish procedures to release information, upon request, regarding the qualifications of classroom aides to parents/guardians for any classroom aide who is employed by a school receiving Title I funds and who provides instructional assistance to their children.

Qualification of classroom aides in Title I schools

All classroom aides paid in whole or in part with Title I funds shall be qualified in accord with federal law. All such classroom aides must have a high school diploma or its equivalent. All such classroom aides, except those working as translators or solely in conducting parent involvement activities, also must meet one of the following criteria:

- A. Completed at least two years of study at an institution of higher education;
- B. Obtained an associate's (or higher) degree; or
- C. Passed a formal state or local assessment demonstrating ability to assist in instructing reading, writing and mathematics or reading readiness, writing readiness and mathematics readiness, as appropriate.
