	Theatre: Grades K-2
	Unit 1: The Creative Process, Performance and Aesthetic Response
Time Allot	ted: Approximately 20 Weeks – Infusion and Weekly Instruction
New Jerse	y Student Learning Standards (NJSLS)
1.1.2.C.1	Identify basic elements of theatre and describe their use in a variety of theatrical performances
1.1.2.C.2	Express stage directions, areas of the stage, basic stage movements, and parts of a script using correct theatre terms (e.g., setting, costumes, plot, theme, etc.).
1.1.2.C.3	Distinguish between characters, actors, and the self by demonstrating respect for personal space, creative movement, and pantomime skills while interacting with others in creative drama and storytelling.
1.1.2.C.4	Describe the use of the technical theatrical elements by examining examples of theatrical design in productions.
1.3.2.C.1	Portray characters when given specifics about circumstances, plot, and thematic intent, demonstrating logical story sequence and informed character choices.
1.3.2.C.2	Use voice and movement in solo, paired, and group pantomimes and improvisations.
1.3.2.C.3	Develop awareness of vocal range, personal space, and character-specific vocal and creative movement choices.
1.4.2.A.3	Use imagination to create a story based on an arts experience that communicated an emotion or feeling, and tell the story through each of the four arts disciplines (dance, music, theatre, and visual art).
1.4.2.A.4	Distinguish patterns in nature found in works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art.
1.4.2.B.1	Observe the basic arts elements in performances and exhibitions and use them to formulate objective assessments of artworks in dance, music, theatre, and visual art.
1.4.2.B.2	Apply the principles of positive critique in giving and receiving responses to performances.

	Unit 2: The History of the Arts and Culture, Performance, and Aesthetic Response
Time Allo	tted: Approximately 20 Weeks – Infusion and Weekly Instruction
New Jerse	ey Student Learning Standards (NJSLS)
1.2.2.A.1	Identify characteristic theme-based works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art, such as artworks based on the themes of family and community, from various historical periods and world cultures.
1.2.2.A.2	Identify how artists and specific works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art reflect, and are affected by, past and present cultures
1.4.2.A.1	Identify aesthetic qualities of exemplary works of art in dance, music, theatre, and visual art, and identify characteristics of the artists who created them (e.g., gender, age, absence or presence of training, style, etc.).
1.4.2.A.2	Compare and contrast culturally and historically diverse works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art that evoke emotion and that communicate cultural meaning.
L.4.2.B.1	Observe the basic arts elements in performances and exhibitions and use them to formulate objective assessments of artworks in dance, music, theatre, and visual art.
.4.2.B.2	Apply the principles of positive critique in giving and receiving responses to performances.
1.4.2.B.3	Recognize the making subject or theme in works of dance, music, theatre, and visual art.
