Above consequences are subject to change. Administration may issue disciplinary assignments at any level based upon the severity of frequency of an offense. However, there could be a progression to disciplinary assignments, which should alert parents and the student to address behaviors before they become even more serious. Generally, but not always, this progression could be as follows:

1. Warnings, teacher assigned detentions, and other creative resolutions.
2. (LD) Lunch Detention(s) and (CD) After School Central Detention(s) generally served within 24/48 hours of the offense.
3. (ISS) In School Suspension, is suspension assigned during the school day. Students assigned to ISS are to remain after school until 3:30 p.m.
4. (OSS) Out-of School Suspension is an assigned day or days when a student is not permitted to attend school or any school functions and his/her parents are responsible for them at this time.

Disciplinary consequences will only be discussed with parents or legal guardians of the student receiving the consequences.
