Above consequences are subject to change. Administration may issue disciplinary assignments at any level based upon the severity of frequency of an offense. However, there could be a progression to disciplinary assignments, which should alert parents and the student to address behaviors before they become even more serious. Generally, but not always, this progression could be as follows:

1. Warnings, teacher assigned detentions, and other creative resolutions.
2. (TD) Teacher Detention(s)
3. (LD) Lunch Detention(s) for restorative practices

4. (CD) After School Central Detention(s) for restorative practices generally served within 24/48 hours of the offense.
5. (ISS) In School Suspension, is suspension assigned during the school day. Students assigned to ISS are to remain after school until 3:30 p.m.
6. (OSS) Out-of School Suspension is an assigned day or days when a student is not permitted to attend school or any school functions and his/her parents are responsible for them at this time.

Appeals: Parents who wish to appeal a disciplinary action, may speak with the school's administration. Parents may appeal to the Superintendent after meeting with school administration. If a student is suspended or expelled, parents may ask for hearing with the Rutherford Board of Education and can make a final appeal to the NJ Commissioner of Education.

Pursuant to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA): Disciplinary consequences and matters will only be discussed with parents or legal guardians of the students receiving consequences. The school administration, faculty, and staff cannot discuss the consequences or punishments of students other than your own.

The District assures that physical restraint and seclusion techniques in students are only used in an emergency and in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 18A:46-13.4 et seq.

The Student Assistance Counselor maintains a current list of community based health and social service provider agencies to support a student and the student's family. Resources will be shared upon parent request.
