STUDIO ART
Spring 2015

1. INTRODUCTION/OVERVIEW/PHILOSOPHY

This course is designed for students who wish to continue to develop painting skills by working with acrylics and would like to be introduced to high and low relief sculptural forms. During the second half of the course, students will be able to further develop painting and sculptural skills and pursue portfolio development, under contractual agreements. Emphasis is on identifying individual needs and producing art pieces that will result in a strong, competitive portfolio. Preparation of portfolios will include mounting, matting, and photographing the art pieces for a slide portfolio.

This course is well suited for the student who:

- has taken several semester art courses, and/or
- is pursuing art in higher education, or
- wishes to work in an art-related entry level job, or
- has been identified as being gifted and talented

- Final project
- Due dates
- Originality
- Student involvement in learning process
- Use of elements and principles of design related to composition
- Mastering of techniques of media and use of tools

10. DIFFERENTIATING INSTRUCTION FOR STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Differentiating instruction is a flexible process that includes the planning and design of instruction, how that instruction is delivered, and how student progress is measured. Teachers recognize that students can learn in multiple ways as they celebrate students' prior knowledge. By providing appropriately challenging learning, teachers can maximize success for all students.

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support:

Students with Disabilities

- Use of visual and multi-sensory formats
- Use of assisted technology
- Use of prompts
- Modification of content and student products
- Testing accommodations
- Authentic assessments

Gifted & Talented Students

- Adjusting the pace of lessons
- Curriculum compacting
- Inquiry-based instruction
- Independent study
- Higher-order thinking skills
- Interest-based content
- Student-driven
- Real-world problems and scenarios

English Language Learners

- Pre-teaching of vocabulary and concepts
- Visual learning, including graphic organizers
- Use of cognates to increase comprehension
- Teacher modeling
- Pairing students with beginning English language skills with students who have more advanced English language skills
- Scaffolding
  - word walls
  - sentence frames
  - think-pair-share
  - cooperative learning groups
  - teacher think-alouds

11. INTERDISCIPLINARY CONNECTIONS

This course reinforces concepts taught in:

- Social Studies
- Humanities Seminar
- Mathematics
- Appropriate and competent use of relevant websites and digital software and equipment 8.1.12
- Recording student performances/projects using appropriate audio, video, and /or photographic means to facilitate classroom critique of student growth and progress 8.1.12
- Presentation and exploration of related career possibilities 9.2.12
- Working in teams to create group based learning activities and projects CRP1
- Application of skills learned in class to project based activities CRP2
- Emphasis on importance of proper nutrition for student learning CRP3

12. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

As per the PDP/100 hour statement, the teacher will continue to improve expertise through participation in a variety of professional development opportunities.
