Pop Culture in Literature and the Media

I. Introduction/Overview/Philosophy

In this course, students will take an in-depth look at our society's popular culture, as it is documented through classic and contemporary film, literature, music, art, television, and advertising. Students will enhance and develop critical visual learning skills as they consider what Americans read, watch, and listen to, and analyze these popular mediums as reflections of our society's values and ideals. This will enable young adults to be more aware of how the media can act as both a window and a mirror to our ever-changing culture. Understanding how our culture is shaped will better equip them to navigate the technological and societal changes in the 21st Century.

NEW JERSEY STUDENT LEARNING STANDARDS
ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS*Grade 8

The standards define general, cross-disciplinary literacy expectations that must be met for students to be prepared to enter college and workforce training programs ready to succeed. The K–12 grade-specific standards define end-of-year expectations and a cumulative progression designed to enable students to meet college and career readiness expectations no later than the end of high school.

Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year’s grade-specific standards, retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades, and work steadily toward meeting the more general expectations described by the standards.
